Sir,

Mr. B. Venkoba Rao, Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, having intimated that he would avail himself of a day's compensation leave on the 6th March 1923, on the ground that as General Secretary he could not avail himself of the last Dasara Holidays, I have the honour to state that under Art.140 of the Mysore Service Regulations, Dasara Holidays are not regarded as Gazetted holidays in the case of Deputy Commissioners and Heads of Departments whose duties require their attendance at the Dasara Representative Assembly. As such it is doubtful if Mr. Venkoba Rao is entitled to Compensation Leave and I request I may be informed if in such cases Compensation Leave may be allowed under Article 159A, Mysore Service Regulations.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that I could not avail myself of the last Dasara Holidays from 27th September to 7th October 1922 as I was General Secretary then and had to be on duty in Mysore in connection with the Representative ssembly Meetings and other work of the Secretariat. ut of the ten days compensation leave which I have thus earned under Article 159 of M.S.R. I have utilised one day on the 6th instant and I intend to avail myself of two more days' compensation leave on the 22nd and 23rd instant placing Mr.M.P.Visvanatha Rao, Sub Division Officer of Dodballapur, in charge of the current duties of the District Office in addition to his own.

Yours sincerely,

D.O. Dated Bangalore, 16th March 1923

Dear Sir,

With reference to Comptroller's letter No.473/G.A.D. of 12th March 1923 to your address, copy of which has been sent to me, regarding the compensation leave availed of by me on the 6th March 1923, I write to bring to your notice that there was a mistake in my office in intimating the fact to the Comptroller as no such intimation is required to be given to him (vide para 19 (1) of the New Revenue Manual).

2. As regards the leave itself, reading Article 159 A. of the Mysore Service Regulations with Government Order No.Fl.C.91-140/S.& A.12920 dated 23rd October 1920, it is clear that the officers who are required to be on duty during the Dasara and Xmas Holidays are entitled to compensation leave.

Yours sincerely,

Rajamantrapravina
